

So have a Happy New Year instead!

Cover:

"The queen of Babylon (Semiramis) ordered the world to celebrate the birth of her son, 'Tammuz.' He of course, was the sun god, Baal, representing Satan. She set December 25th for Baal's birthday. Her astrologers told her that the sun is at its farthest point from the earth during the winter solstice."

"So they told the people that on the 21st of December the sun, or Baal, dies.

"Then on the 24th of December, he starts coming back to life, and the 25th is his birthday.

"As time passed, all over the world on the 25th of December, the sun was worshipped by these various names: Tammuz, Horus, Osiris, Sol, etc. It was a time for orgies, sacrificing of babies to Baal, drunkenness, and merriment. Semiramis ordered trees to be decorated with little balls representing the sun.

"When the Mass was first said on midnight, December 24th, around the year 394 A.D., it was the Mass of Christ, or Christmas. The religious machine changed it from Baal's birthday to the birthday of Jesus. The pagans loved it. It became the biggest day of the year for the Roman Catholic institution.

"It is a festive time of lights, songs, Christmas trees, gifts, but also suicides and despair for the homeless.

"We see yule logs, parties, kids waiting for Santa Claus to leave them presents. We see the Virgin Mary and a little Baby, both with the sun around their heads.

"Does the Bible instruct us to celebrate the birth of Christ? No! Neither Christ or the apostles ever taught this. There is no record that the early believers ever celebrated Christ's birth, much less 'Xmas.' This unbiblical practice was instituted by the Vatican to tie Christ to the Mass. Today, Christians are pressured into observing this Roman Catholic 'holy day.'"

Therefore, my beloved, shun the worship of idols. I speak as to sensible men; judge for yourselves what I say. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. Consider the people of Israel; are not those who eat the sacrifices partners in the altar? What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be partners with demons. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? 1 Corinthians 10:14
